

BARTENDERS WORKSHOP

GOOD FOOD AND WINE SHOW JHB SEPT 2010

The Good Food and Wine Show Johannesburg was once again a very busy show for us and we ran and hosted various stands, listed below:

- The Bartenders Workshop Cocktail Lounge. Our bartenders prepared flavoured Calpirinhia's and sold our new cocktail kits.
- The Bartenders Workshop Interactive Stand with sponsor Roses Cordials and Monis Juices. This stand won Gold for the most innovative stand at the show.
- The National Bartending Competition. Skilled bartenders showed their flair and cocktail making skills. Well done to Travis Kuhn for 1st place in Flair and Owen O'Reilly for 1st place in Classics.

LOERIES 1ST OCTOBER-3RD OCTOBER 2010

The Loerie Awards held at The Good Hope Centre was attended by 3000 guests. The Bartenders Workshop was on hand making 2500 cocktails over the three day period, handing out limited edition bottles from Heineken and running the cash bar at the main event. Our stylish Beyond bar structures were also set up at Julip Bar, Mojito Bar and Long Street Cafe for the after party. With 28 metres of bar, 45 bartenders and 7 managers The Bartenders Workshop made sure that this event was a success.

DRINKINC

Kurt Schlechter, Training Director of The Bartenders Workshop recently launched a blog site called drinkinc. The blog was created for all those who have an interest in cocktails and mixology. The blog showcases some of the cocktails that Kurt has designed over the years. So get blogging with Kurt if you feel like a good drink. www.drinkinc.co

ELLERMAN HOUSE

Ellerman House, one of Cape Town's most prestigious boutique hotels recently sent their bartenders for a training session at The Bartenders Workshop. The bartenders were taught how to make cocktails from their new cocktail menu designed by Etienne.

BREDEKLOOF
